

YOUNG PEOPLE remember international

Set-Up Labs: Connect – DESIGN – Apply

In order to initiate new international and interdisciplinary partnerships at eye level and to qualify educators to develop and implement effective pedagogical projects, the YOUNG PEOPLE remember international program offers the Set-Up Labs.

Design: The international project development workshop provides you with impulses and suggestions to further develop and enhance your own project ideas. Special emphasis is placed on the topics of multi-perspectivity, participant-orientation and innovative formats for international youth work.
